

CAFA Overview

The information requested in this application is required to determine eligibility for Coverage Assistance and Financial Assistance (CAFA). CAFA is a financial assistance program for patients who have received services at Atrium Health. Eligibility is based on a patient's household income as compared to federal poverty guidelines.

Requirements to Apply for CAFA

To be considered for CAFA, the patient must meet the following requirements:

- Resident of North Carolina or South Carolina and uninsured
- Resident of Georgia and uninsured or underinsured (Medicare and Medicaid recipients are not eligible to apply)
- must not be potentially eligible for other programs (such as Medicaid) or has fully cooperated in applying for another program but did not qualify.
- must fully cooperate with the CAFA review process. If additional information and/or proof of income is needed to complete the application, a letter will be mailed to the patient to let them know what is needed and the deadline to submit. If the information requested is not received by the deadline, the patient will not be eligible for CAFA.

What to Expect: The Eligibility Review Process

Eligibility will be determined in a timely manner from the date the application is received by the Coverage Assistance Services Team at Atrium Health. Once the eligibility review is complete, a letter will be mailed the patient to let them know if they have been approved or denied.
