Volunteer Statement of Confidentiality and Non-Disclosure

Campers and families have a legal right to expect that confidentiality of information will be preserved. Unlawful use or disclosure of information may expose an agency to civil and criminal liability. Any breach of confidentiality must result in the automatic dismissal of a volunteer.

1. Confidentiality means that all information about a camper and family is protected.
Protected information includes all information about a camper and family, including name, cause of death, address, financial information, family relationships and any information learned from the staff, camper, or family.
2. I will not disclose any information with anyone unauthorized to receive this information. I will handle all paperwork and forms with proper procedure of control so that no information is accidentally observed or released to any unauthorized persons. I also understand that the casual sharing of patient care information in public places or settings is inappropriate.
Volunteers do not discuss the camper, emotional status, coping, or family information with anyone other than appropriate agency personnel. "What you hear and see here, stays here."
Volunteers will discuss information only in private spaces and not in cafeterias, lobbies, waiting rooms, parking lots, or other public spaces in the agency, at the camp site or elsewhere.
Volunteers must observe these cautions even if others occasionally forget them.
Volunteers are not to initiate contact with or indicate that they know a camper or a camper's family in any place other than camp.
3. I will disclose such information only in the discharge of my assigned duties and responsibilities with Hospice or persons authorized to receive such information through the signed consent of patient, family member, or affected party.
In your role as a camp volunteer, all matters should be kept confidential, except those matters related to instances of harm or threat of harm to any person, child abuse, or child neglect.
No photographs or videotapes of any kind are permissible without a signed release form from the camper's parent or legal guardian. Volunteers must not allow anyone to photograph or videotape campers without staff permission and a signed photo consent form.

I understand that information regarding Hospice of Union County patients, their families and/or significant others and any persons receiving bereavement support or services in any capacity is privileged information for use by and with authorized persons only. I further understand and agree that any violation of this policy is of such critical offense that it will justify my immediate discharge as a Wings to Soar camp - Union volunteer.
