

For students enrolled at Cabarrus College, the following academic classification below applies when completing the 2024-25 FAFSA. Select your grade level in college from July 1, 2024, through June 30, 2025.

If you are currently a senior in high school or will be a first-time college student, please select Answer First year undergraduate (Freshman)

ACADEMIC CLASSIFICATION	FAFSA response for Question 4- Student College or Career School Plans When the student begins the 2024-25 school year, what will their college grade level be?
Certificate Seeking Student: Status does not vary by credit hours earned	First year undergraduate (Freshman)
Diploma Seeking Students: Freshman, Status does not vary by credit hours earned	First year undergraduate (Freshman)
Undergraduate Students: Freshman 0-29 semester credit hours earned	First year undergraduate (Freshman)
Undergraduate Students: Sophomore, 30 or more semester credit hours earned	Second year undergraduate (sophomore)
Bachelor's Degree Seeking Students: Junior, 60-89 semester credit hours earned	Other undergraduate (junior year and beyond)
Bachelor's Degree Seeking Students: Senior, 90-120 or more semester credit hours earned	Other undergraduate (junior year and beyond)
Master's Degree Seeking Students: Graduate Student, Status does not vary by credit hours earned	Master's doctorate or graduate certificate program (MA, MBS, MD, JD, PhD, EDD, etc.)

Credit hours earned- includes hours approved as transfer credit.