

Year of Belonging: Belonging Talk on Racial Inequities in Healthcare

“Of all the forms of inequality, injustice in healthcare is the most shocking and inhumane.”

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Join us for our inaugural Belonging Talk Series featuring a virtual fireside chat with Atrium Health Wake Forest Baptist and local community organization leaders around the importance of understanding and addressing racial inequities in healthcare and actionable steps we can take toward fostering a more trust-centered, equitable and inclusive healthcare landscape.

Wednesday, May 15, 2024

2:00 – 3:00 pm

Click here to join the meeting

This session will be recorded.

Moderated by Iris Cole featuring Drs. Nadine Barrett and Crystal Ellis

Iris Cole is a social entrepreneur and Founding Partner of She Raises the Bar, a Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) and sustainability consulting firm, and Do Good Artist, a social impact design firm.

Nadine J. Barrett, PhD, MA, MPH is Professor of Social Sciences and Health Policy and Senior Associate dean for Community Engagement and Equity in Research at Atrium Health Wake Forest Baptist and President of the Association of Cancer Care Centers.

Crystal Ellis, PhD, is Vice President of Research and Strategy for Action 4 Equity, and Co-Director of the People’s Research Council. Dr. Ellis has 10 years of research experience including private and consultation, academic and traditional non-profit sector.

Use QR Code or link to share questions or topics to be considered for this upcoming & future Belonging Talks.

