Request for Opt-Out

By signing and submitting this form, you are agreeing that you have read and understand the following conditions to which you are requesting to opt-out of participation within the Atrium Health CareConnect.

- I understand that by submitting this form, my personal health information will no longer be viewable by providers, including emergency room physicians, using Atrium Health CareConnect. In understanding the ramifications of my decision, I choose to prevent access to my personal health information through the Atrium Health CareConnect.
- I may only request to opt-out for myself or for those minor children (up to 18 years of age) of whom I am the parent or legal guardian.
- I fully understand that opting-out of this electronic exchange system in no way prevents my authorized treatment provider(s) from properly using or disclosing my healthcare records and information directly with each other by other permitted methods, such as by fax, mail, or the like.
- I acknowledge that I will be allowed to make my personal health information available again in the Atrium Health CareConnect by completing the Cancellation of Opt-out Request Form found on the Atrium Health CareConnect website or as provided by my participating healthcare provider.
