

KL2

Mentored Career Development

KL2 Mission

Provides two years of support for early-career faculty involved in translational research to expand skills & competencies under the guidance of an experienced, multi-disciplinary mentoring team, within the context of a learning healthcare system & rapidly evolving academic research environment.

KL2 Scholars Receive

75% salary
support for 2 years

$35K/year for educational & research needs

Multi-disciplinary mentoring
team

“It’s been incredible. The KL2 is allowing us to develop and test innovative, electronic medical record embedded clinical and research screening tools without the need for extra staffing.”

~ Heidi Munger Clary, MD, MPH

2019 KL2 Recipient

Study: “Anxiety and Depression in Epilepsy: Assessing Outcomes via the Electronic Health Record”

Leadership

David P. Miller, MD, MS, FACP

Professor, Internal Medicine &
Public Health Sciences,
Director, KL2 Program

Kathryn E. Weaver, PhD

Associate Professor, Social Sciences
& Health Policy & Implementation
Science,
Co-Director, KL2 Program

Contact

Claudia Olivier, PhD

Education Program Director, CTSI
colivier@wakehealth.edu

ctsi.wakehealth.edu/KL2