

Erich Grant, PA-C, MMS # 12

Erich Grant, MMS, PA-C is an Assistant Professor and Vice Chair of Education and Curriculum Innovation within the Department of PA Studies. His research interests include predictors of medical learner success, medical educator development, narrative medicine and stories of patient illness, professional identity formation and scalability within medical education spheres. Erich practices clinically as a PA with our Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation service, and serves as the PA Program's liaison for interprofessional activity development.