

John Darby, MD
33

I am an assistant professor of Pediatrics at Wake Forest Baptist Health, a pediatric hospitalist at Brenner Children's Hospital and an assistant program director for the Wake Forest Pediatrics Residency. I have an interest in medical education with a particular focus on resident scholarship and understanding the impacts of learners on the delivery of patient care.