

Summer Program: Training in Research Affecting Child Health (TRAC)

APPLICATION DEADLINE: January 8, 2027

IN-PERSON PROGRAM START: June 2, 2027

PROGRAM END: July 28, 2027

Curious about a child-health research topic? Engage in a unique child health and development research experience focused on a topic you are passionate about:

WHO CAN APPLY: Undergraduate, medical, and graduate students, residents, fellows

WHERE: Wake Forest University School of Medicine, Winston-Salem, NC (in person)

APPLY HERE:
2027 TRAC Application

Or scan QR Code:

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Eight weeks of in-person, paid internship
- Autonomously design your research project under faculty mentor guidance
- Near-Peer Coach Mentoring
- Develop research, autonomy, and critical and creative thinking skills
- Pediatrics-specific skills course and career-enhancing activities
- Present at the Summer Research Symposium
- Continue to be involved in research after the summer to see your project to completion

Learn more on our WEBSITE

CONTACT US: TRACAHWFB@Advocatehealth.org

This program does not provide housing!

PROGRAM DELIVERABLES

- Abstract submission
- Presentation at scientific conference
- Submission of a first-authored manuscript

Funding: Eunice Kennedy Shriver National Institute of Child Health & Human Development of the National Institutes of Health, (R25HD111367; Gwathmey, South)