

Residency Application FAQ's

- 1. When is the application due? Completed applications should be submitted no later than October 19, 2020.
- 2. Do I need letters of recommendation? If so, how many? Who must write them? Yes, three letters of recommendation from any specialty physician should be submitted with your application.
- 3. What Step Scores and Exams are required? USMLE and/or Comlex Step 1 Score(s) are required; USMLE and/or Comlex Step 2 Score(s) should be submitted if available.
- 4. Is there a minimum Board Score requirement to apply? There is no minimum Board Score to apply.
- 5. Do I need to submit my medical school transcript? Yes.
- 6. Is ECFMG Certification required? Yes, all Foreign Medical School graduates are required to submit this certification.
- 7. What Visas do you sponsor? J-1 Visas only.
- 8. Do I need to submit a personal statement and/or MSPE? Yes, both are required.
- 9. Do I need to have a photograph with my application? Although not required, it is strongly recommended, especially this year, as interviews will be conducted virtually. A medical student photo is acceptable.
- 10. How do I communicate COVID-related discrepancies/issues/concerns? These should be addressed in either the personal statement or an additional document uploaded in ERAS.